DARE TO RIDE THE SMALL CAMEL WITH THE MAMMUT ALPINE SCHOOL (CH) | 2 DAYS

Based on the famous photo taken years ago as part of a product campaign for Mammut, directed by mountain photographer Robert Bösch and showing 26 alpinists (most of them mountain guides from the former Bergschule Uri/now Mammut Alpine School) on top of the Small Camel, we would like to give you the opportunity to follow suit and try a ride on the camel yourself under the professional guidance of our mountain guides.

You will receive an exclusive photo so that this experience will remain in your memory. Don't miss your chance before the caravan moves on!

Whether for the subsequent wellness programme in the luxurious spa or in the regionally inspired gourmet restaurant of the 4-star superior hotel - the Radisson Blu Reussen in Andermatt, which opened at the end of 2018, offers you every comfort and invites you to refresh and relax in a pleasant atmosphere.

Program

Day 1

The preparation day starts with training on the rock and includes knots, roping up and belaying techniques as well as walking & climbing with mountain boots and material knowledge regarding the equipment used.

Day 2

On the second day you start the tour from the Furkapass. With the possible help of crampons and ice axes, you go through alpine terrain past the lower Bielenlücke to the foot of the Small Camel. From here, the ascent is made on a static rope using rope clamps. Enjoy the unique moment of standing on top of the Little Camel!
