

Val Müstair

NEAT MOUNTAIN VILLAGES, SPARSE PINE FORESTS AND SECLUDED PLATEAUS (CH) | 4 DAYS

Located in the South-Eastern corner of Switzerland, the Müstair Valley is a small world in itself. The beautiful mountain villages, with their historic architecture, nestled in a gently rolling valley landscape, are in contrast to the wild, natural mountains. You'll explore this ancient natural environment with your snowshoes day by day, and get to know the valley, its sparse forests and secluded plateaus in a unique way. There are a variety of options available, each offering distinctive, stunning views of the surrounding landscape and mountain peaks.

Program

- Day 1 Individual arrival in Val Müstair and welcome by the mountain guide at the hotel. Joint discussion of the schedule and distribution of rental equipment. Then you'll head outside and strap on your snowshoes straight away. During a leisurely introductory tour, you'll also receive instruction on avalanche safety/use of avalanche transceivers.
- Day 2 Whether from the Ofen Pass at the very top of the valley and over secluded plateaus, through sparse pine forests to Alp Sadra or to the sun terrace at Lü - the touring options in the Val Müstair biosphere reserve could hardly be more diverse. After each snowshoe hike, relaxation becomes a top priority. The hospitality and excellent regional cuisine offered at the hotel will ensure rapid and effective relaxation for mind and body. (Distance: approx. 6-10 km; Duration: approx. 2-4 hours; Ascent/Descent: 400-700 vertical meters)
